

A weekly reflection by members of the Precious Blood Community

June 24, 2026

“Until we meet again, may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing.”

(Romans 15:13)

This edition marks the beginning of a hiatus for Wednesday Whispers. I am deeply grateful to the Adorers community for envisioning this publication as a way to share the richness of our spirituality with a wider audience. As we pause this beloved series, we do so with heartfelt gratitude for all who have journeyed with us through its pages. Over the years, Wednesday Whispers has offered moments of reflection, prayer, and inspiration, inviting readers to slow down amid life's busyness and listen for the gentle movement of God's presence. We are thankful for the many contributors and readers who have made this publication a meaningful expression of faith, community, and the spirituality of the Precious Blood.

Through stories, spiritual reflections, and shared wisdom, Wednesday Whispers has helped foster a deeper appreciation for the spirituality and mission of the Precious Blood tradition. We are grateful to every writer who shared their gifts and every reader who welcomed these reflections into their hearts and homes.

While this publication is coming to an end, our commitment to nurturing spiritual growth and meaningful conversation continues. In fact, we are excited to announce that a new publication will debut this fall. Building on the foundation of The Wine Cellar, this new electronic magazine will offer expanded opportunities for reflection and engagement with contemporary issues through the lens of faith and Precious Blood spirituality.

The new publication will feature longer-form articles and thoughtful explorations of topics that matter to our community. It will provide a space where voices from diverse backgrounds can share insights, challenge us to grow, and deepen our understanding of God's presence in our world.

As we prepare for this new beginning, we invite you to carry forward the spirit of Wednesday Whispers: a spirit of reflection, curiosity, compassion, and hope. Thank you for being part of this journey. We look forward to welcoming you this fall as we open the next chapter together and continue exploring the richness of faith, spirituality, and community.

Until then, may you continue to find moments of grace in the whispers of each day.

This weekly reflection is made available to everyone in our Precious Blood family. Feel free to share it with others. If you would like to write one of these reflections occasionally, or to learn about Precious Blood Spirituality, visit our website: pbspiritualityinstitute.org.
