

A weekly reflection by members of the Precious Blood Community

November 26, 2025

“Lord, I thank you for your faithfulness and love.”
Psalm 138

Giver of Every Good Gift,
On this Thanksgiving Day
We pause before the mystery of Your love –
A love poured out in the Precious Blood of Christ,
Gathering the scattered and healing the broken pieces within us.

We thank You for the quiet blessings that shape our days:
For breath and beauty, for earth and harvest,
For hands that prepare and hearts that share.
We thank you for the stories that bind us,
For compassion that strengthens us,
And for hope that endures even in uncertain times.

Let gratitude open our eyes to Your presence shining in every person,
The neighbor and the stranger, the joyful and the weary, the blessed and the burdened,
each one a vessel of Your grace.

Make us instruments of your mercy, agents of peace and reconciliation, and bearers of hope in a wounded world.

Bless this day, O Lord, the tables we gather around,
our families, our communities, and our world with peace.
Let gratitude become our daily bread, and love, poured out without measure,
become the story we live,
and love our lasting legacy. AMEN

Happy Thanksgiving from the Precious Blood Spirituality Institute

Vicky Otto, D. Min.	Kevin Considine, Ph.D.
Executive Director	Director, Schreiter Institute
Diana Rawlings, ASC	Joni Belford, C.P.P.S.
Phil Hartke	Barbara Jean Franklin, ASC
Dave Kelly, C.P.P.S.	Karen Elliott, C.P.P.S.