“I leave you peace, my peace I give you.”
John 14: 27

Our trust in the Lord, the Almighty, for all that we need leads us to enjoy the peace of our wellbeing.

Our world today is challenged with turmoil & restlessness. With the advances in technology, we see an increase in crime, hunger, suicides, and divisions in families. For most of us who are blessed with strong faith, we still feel guilty and inadequate, at least to help minimize, if not completely eradicate, the sad situation of the world today. We maintain that strong faith and trust that our Lord, by His will, let things happen according to His Divine Providence!

For us, His sons and daughters are gifted with the options to choose to trust in Him and maintain the peace He alone can give. We certainly cannot blame our God for allowing the chaotic world to happen.

Whatever evil ways humans created, the Almighty will always prevail!

To choose to trust in His Divine Providence for our deliverance from this chaotic world could lead us to Peace!
